Privacy and Data Protection Agreement

This Privacy and Data Protection Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the 'Privacy Agreement'), sets forth the standard obligations that all third parties (hereinafter referred to as 'Vendor', and includes their affiliates, agents, or partners) must follow when receiving or accessing personal data from or on behalf of any of the entities part of the Emeritus Group for processing in order to provide any type of Service(s) to any of such entities.

This Privacy Agreement is incorporated and forms part of the Services Agreement (also referred to as Consultancy Agreement or MSA, hereinafter referred to as the "Main Agreement") entered into between Vendor and any Emeritus Group entity (hereinafter "Client") and applies to the services to be provided by Vendor under such Main Agreement ("Services").

This Privacy Agreement is applicable and enforceable even in cases where there is no Main Agreement between the Parties, or in case only a purchase order or an SOW exists between the Parties.

In the event of a conflict between this Privacy Agreement and the Main Agreement with respect to the subject matter herein, the terms of this Privacy Agreement shall govern. Any data protection agreements that may already exist between the Parties as of the last signature date of this Privacy Agreement as well as any earlier version of privacy terms contained within the security terms to which the Parties may have agreed to are superseded and replaced by this Privacy Agreement in their entirety. All capitalized terms not defined in this Privacy Agreement will have the meaning given to them in the Main Agreement.

Vendor and the Client are hereinafter together referred to as the 'Parties'.

I. DEFINITIONS

In this Privacy Agreement, the following terms (whether or not capitalized) shall have the meanings set out below and cognate terms shall be construed accordingly:

'Applicable Law' means all central, state, local, foreign, or international statutes, codes, enactments, acts of legislature or parliament, laws, by-laws, ordinances, regulations, rules, notifications, treaties, regulatory guidelines and interpretations, and judicial or administrative orders, as each may be amended, re-enacted or consolidated from time to time, of any authority having jurisdiction over a party or the subject matter of this Privacy Agreement.

'Affiliate' means any entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, another entity, where "control" means the beneficial ownership of more than 50% of the issued share capital of a company or the legal power to direct or cause the direction of the management of the company and "controls" and "controlled" shall be interpreted accordingly.

'Client Personal Data' means Personal Data (irrespective of whether it is in electronic or in physical form) (1) obtained or accessed by the Vendor from any of the entities part of Emeritus Group (irrespective of whether the Emeritus Group entity is a Controller or a Processor towards such Personal Data); (2) obtained or accessed from any other source, including without limitation, a Data Subject, for processing by the Vendor on behalf of any of the entities part of the Emeritus Group; or (3) generated while delivering the services in terms of this Privacy Agreement and other relevant agreements between the Parties.

'(Data) Controller' means the natural or legal person, or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the Processing of Personal Data.

'Data Protection Law' means all applicable data protection, security or privacy-related laws, statutes, directives, or regulations in any relevant jurisdiction.

'Data Subject' means any person to whom personal data relates.

'Emeritus Group' means Eruditus Learning Solutions Pte Ltd (ID # 201230726W), a company incorporated under the laws of Singapore having offices at 78 Shenton Way, # 20-02, Singapore - 079120, along with its affiliates and subsidiaries.

'General Data Protection Regulation or GDPR' means Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC.

'Model Clauses' means the standard contractual clauses annexed to the EU Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2021/914 of 4 June 2021 for the transfer of personal data to third countries pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council, or any successor standard contractual clauses that may be adopted pursuant to an EU Commission decision.

'Personal Data' means any data related to an identified or identifiable living natural person, provided, however, that if an applicable law has a different definition of Personal Data (or a similar term referring to information relating to an individual), such definition shall be applied to the extent applicable.

'Personal Data Breach' means a breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored, or otherwise processed.

'Processing' means (1) any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction; and (2) any other action that may be taken with respect to personal data.

'(Data) Processor' means a natural or legal person, or other body which processes Personal Data on behalf of the Controller.

'Restricted Transfer' means: (i) where the GDPR applies, a transfer of personal data from the European Economic Area to a country outside of the European Economic Area which is not subject to an adequacy determination by the European Commission (including an onward transfer); and (ii) where the UK GDPR applies, a transfer of Personal Data from the United Kingdom to any other country which is not based on adequacy regulations pursuant to Section 17A of the United Kingdom Data Protection Act 2018 (including an onward transfer).

'Sensitive Data' means data which is more significantly related to the notion of a reasonable expectation of privacy, such as medical or financial information. However, data may be considered more or less sensitive depending on context or jurisdiction. Personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation are some examples of sensitive data (list not exhaustive).

'Sub-processor' means any person (excluding an employee of the Vendor) appointed by or on behalf of the Vendor to process Client Personal Data on behalf of the Client in connection with the Services.

'UK Addendum' means the "International Data Transfer Addendum to the European Commission Standard Contractual Clauses" issued by the Information Commissioner under s.119A(1) of the Data Protection Act 2018.

II. PRIVACY TERMS

With respect to Client Personal Data, (i) when Client is the Data Controller, Vendor shall be the Data Processor, (ii) when Client is a Data Processor, Vendor is the Client's Sub-Processor. For clarity, all provisions of this Privacy Agreement apply irrespective of whether the Vendor acts as Data Processor, Sub-Processor, or otherwise.

1. Instructions:
    a. Vendor shall process Client Personal Data only on documented instructions from the Client, unless otherwise required to do so by Data Protection Laws to which the Vendor is subject. In this case, Vendor shall inform Client of that legal requirement before processing, unless the law prohibits this on important grounds of public interest. Subsequent instructions may also be given by Client throughout the duration of the processing of Client Personal Data. These instructions shall always be documented.

    b. Vendor shall immediately inform Client if, in Vendor's opinion, instructions given by Client infringe applicable Data Protection Laws.

2. Ownership:
    a. Client Personal Data processed by Vendor directly or indirectly in the performance of this Privacy Agreement shall remain the property of Client at all times. It shall be identified, clearly marked, and recorded as such by the Vendor on all media and in all documentation.

    b. The Client Personal Data must be made available (electronic access or file transfer, as may be requested) to Client within forty-eight (48) hours of such request or within the timeframe specified otherwise, at no additional cost, by the Vendor.

    c. Vendor and its sub-processors shall return, delete, destroy, or dispose-off (as directed by the Client) all (or selected) Client Personal Data and any copies thereof as per Client's instructions, and at any time at Client's sole discretion. Client Personal Data shall be deleted/destroyed/disposed-off (if so directed) in a secure manner using industry-standard data wiping practices.

    d. Where the Client is a data processor/importer towards all or part of Client Personal Data (and the Vendor is a sub-processor), in the event that the Client has factually disappeared, ceased to exist in law, or has become insolvent – the data controller(s)/exporter(s) of the relevant Client Personal Data shall have the right to terminate this Privacy Agreement and to instruct the Vendor to erase or return their respective Client Personal Data. The term(s) used in this (sub)clause and not defined in this Privacy Agreement shall derive its meaning from the GDPR.

3. Obligations of the Vendor:

a. While processing Client Personal Data, Vendor shall comply with all the Applicable Laws including the Data Protection Laws. Vendor shall appoint a point of contact ('POC') who will be accountable for ensuring such compliance, and for implementing and maintaining all data processing policies and procedures required under this Privacy Agreement. This clause is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove, or replace, Vendor's obligations, responsibilities, and liabilities under the Data Protection Laws.

b. Vendor shall, promptly and within not more than forty-eight (48) hours of receipt, notify the Client of any request, complaint, or communication it has received from the Data Subject(s), or any supervisory authority related to processing of Client Personal Data under this Privacy Agreement. It shall not respond to the request, complaint, or communication itself, unless authorised to do so by the Client.

c. Vendor shall assist the Client in ensuring compliance with the following obligations, taking into account the nature of the data processing and the information available with Vendor:
   i. Assessing the impact of the envisaged processing operations on the protection of Client Personal Data (a 'data protection impact assessment') where a type of processing is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of natural persons (data subjects).
   ii. Consulting the competent supervisory authority/ies prior to processing where a data protection impact assessment indicates that the processing would result in a high risk in the absence of measures taken by the Client to mitigate the risk.
   iii. Ensuring that Client Personal Data is accurate and up to date, by informing the Client without delay if the Vendor becomes aware that the Client Personal Data it is processing is inaccurate or has become outdated.
   iv. Ensuring security of processing.
   v. The Vendor shall not, by any act or omission, place the Client in breach of any Applicable Law including Data Protection Law.

4. Personal Data Usage and Use Limits:

a. Vendor shall process Client Personal Data for the duration as instructed, solely for the purpose of providing the Services, unless it receives further instructions from the Client, and for no other individual or entity, and for no other purpose.

b. Vendor shall limit the processing of Client Personal Data to what is reasonably necessary and proportionate to provide the services.

c. Vendor acknowledges that Client is entitled to maintain control over Client Personal Data and agrees to follow its instructions for processing.

d. Vendor shall not, directly or indirectly, sell, rent, disclose, distribute, disseminate, commercially exploit, or transfer any Client Personal Data to any third party for any purpose whatsoever, without the prior written approval of the Client.

e. Vendor shall not enrich/update its own databases (existing or new) with the Client Personal Data.

f. Vendor will collect Personal Data from Client's customers, employees, or other Data Subjects or third parties on behalf of Client only with the prior written approval and appropriate instructions from the Client towards such collection. In this case, Vendor shall notify the Data Subjects in accordance with the Data Protection Laws of the circumstances and purposes of such collection, and obtain necessary permissions and consents required to enable Client to use, disclose, or transfer (process) such Personal Data.

5. Security:

Vendor shall establish and maintain necessary administrative, technical, organizational, and physical safeguards to protect Client Personal Data against Personal Data Breach while such data is in the possession or under the control of the Vendor, and implement, at the least, the technical and organisational measures specified at https://emeritus.org/wp-content/uploads/2025/03/Technical-and-Organisational-Measures.pdf to ensure the security of the Client Personal Data, as well as any additional reasonable security measures that Client may prescribe from time to time to safeguard Client Personal Data against Personal Data Breach and/or any other (external or internal) threats.

6. Sensitive Data:

If the processing involves Sensitive Data, Vendor shall apply specific restrictions and/or additional safeguards as per the instructions of Client.

7. Notification of Personal Data Breach:

a. In the event of a Personal Data Breach involving Client Personal Data processed by the Vendor, Vendor shall cooperate with and assist the Client for the Client to comply with its obligations under the relevant provisions of the applicable Data Protection Laws. Vendor shall immediately notify the Client via email at security@emeritus.org and privacy@emeritus.org without undue delay, and in not more than after twenty-four (24) hours after it becomes aware of the Personal Data Breach. Such notification shall contain, at least:

   i. A description of the nature of the breach (including, where possible, the categories and approximate number of data subjects and data records concerned).
   ii. The details of a contact point where more information concerning the Personal Data Breach can be obtained.
   iii. Its likely consequences and the measures taken or proposed to be taken to address the breach, including to mitigate its possible adverse effects.

   In case Vendor cannot provide all this information at the same time, the initial notification shall contain the information then available and further information shall be provided without undue delay as soon as it becomes available. Vendor shall, in coordination with the Client, take reasonable and appropriate steps to stop and remediate any unauthorized use of Client Personal Data affected by the Personal Data Breach.

b. In the event of a Personal Data Breach concerning data processed by the Client, the Vendor shall assist the Client:

   i. In notifying the Personal Data Breach to:

1. The competent supervisory authority/ies, without undue delay after the Client has become aware of it, where relevant.
2. The Data Subject when the Personal Data Breach is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals.

ii. In obtaining the following information which shall be stated in the Client's notification, and must at least include:

1. The nature of the personal data including where possible, the categories and approximate number of Data Subjects concerned, and the categories and approximate number of personal data records concerned.
2. The likely consequences of the Personal Data Breach.
3. The measures taken or proposed to be taken by the Client to address the personal data breach, including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate its possible adverse effects.

In case Vendor cannot provide this information at the same time, the initial notification shall contain the information then available and further information shall be provided without undue delay as soon as it becomes available.

Unless required by the applicable Data Protection Law, Vendor shall not notify or make any statement, announcement or press release (or provide any documentation) to any third party (including but not limited to the media, customers, regulators and supervisory authorities, and individuals affected by the personal data breach) about Personal Data Breach events covered under this clause, and/or other matters concerning Client Personal Data, without the prior written approval of Client. Where the Vendor is legally bound to make a statement (or provide any documentation) without the approval of Client, Vendor shall promptly provide to Client a copy of any such statement(s) or document(s), unless prohibited by the Applicable Law(s).

8. Vendor Employees:

a. Vendor shall grant access to the Client Personal Data undergoing processing to members of its personnel ('Employees') only to the extent strictly necessary for implementing, managing, and monitoring of this Privacy Agreement and/or other relevant agreements entered into between the parties, and for delivery of Services within scope on a need-to-know basis.

b. Vendor shall take reasonable steps to ensure the reliability of Employees who have access to Client Personal Data and shall ensure that persons authorised to process the Client Personal Data including its Employees have committed themselves to confidentiality or are under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality and have received proper training and instruction as to the requirements of this Privacy Agreement and compliant handling of personal data in general.

c. Vendor accepts full liability for any breach(es) of this Privacy Agreement by any of its Employees.

9. Documentation and Compliance:

a. Vendor shall maintain complete, accurate, and up to date written records of all processing activities carried out on behalf of Client containing information as required under the applicable Data Protection Laws and shall make such records available to Client within seventy-two (72) hours of the Client's request.

b. Vendor shall deal promptly and adequately with inquiries from Client about the processing of Client Personal Data in accordance with this Privacy Agreement. Vendor shall be able to demonstrate compliance with this Privacy Agreement and the applicable Data Protection Laws.

10. Data Subject Requests:

a. When needed, Vendor will, upon Client's request, assist Client to comply with its obligations under applicable Data Protection Laws to respond to requests from individuals to exercise their rights under the applicable Data Protection Laws (e.g., rights of access, rectification, erasure, restriction, portability, and objection).

b. If Vendor receives a request directly from a Data Subject in relation to their personal data, Vendor will promptly forward such request to the Client and in any event within three (3) days of receipt. Vendor shall not respond to data subject request(s) unless instructed and authorized by the Client in writing.

11. Right to Audit:

a. At Client's request, and at reasonable intervals or if there are indications of non-compliance, Vendor shall permit Client or an independent auditor appointed by it, to audit the processing activities covered by this Privacy Agreement. This audit may include inspection of Vendor's premises.

b. The parties shall make the information referred to in this clause, including the results of any audits, available to the competent supervisory authority/ies on request.

12. Use of Sub-processors:

a. Vendor shall not subcontract any of its processing operations performed on behalf of the Client to a sub-processor, including its affiliates, without the Client's prior specific written authorisation. The list of sub-processors authorised by the Client are listed in Annexure III of this Privacy Agreement. Vendor shall keep this annexure up to date.
   i. Vendor shall notify the Client, at least thirty (30) days prior to the engagement of new sub-processor(s) if it wants to amend the list of sub-processors by way of addition or replacement, together with the information necessary to enable the Client to decide on the authorisation to the proposed amendment.
   ii. The Client shall notify the Vendor within thirty (30) days of the date of its receipt of the Vendor's notice whether it accepts the amendment(s) to the list of sub-processors or whether it has any objection(s), in which case, the parties will discuss the Client's objections, acting reasonably and in good faith. If the Vendor cannot reasonably accommodate a solution to the Client's objection(s), then the Client may terminate the relevant agreement(s) and this Privacy Agreement, by notice to the Vendor without liability or additional obligation(s) on the Client.
   iii. If the Client does not object to the proposed amendment(s) within thirty (30) days of the date of its receipt of the Vendor's notice, then the amendment(s) in the notice and the use of the new sub-processor(s) will be deemed accepted by the Client.

b. Where the Vendor engages a sub-processor, it shall do so by way of a contract which imposes on the sub-processor, in substance, the same data protection obligations as the ones imposed on Vendor under this Privacy Agreement. Vendor shall ensure that the sub-processor complies with the obligations to which Vendor is subject pursuant to this Privacy Agreement and to applicable Data Protection Laws.

c. At Client's request, Vendor shall provide a copy of such a sub-processor agreement and any subsequent amendments to Client. To the extent necessary to protect business secret or other confidential information, including personal data, the Vendor may redact the text of the agreement prior to sharing the copy.

d. Vendor shall remain fully responsible and liable to the Client for the performance of its sub-processors' obligations, and their violation of this Privacy Agreement and applicable Data Protection Laws. Vendor shall notify Client of any failure by the sub-processor to fulfil its contractual obligations.

e. The Vendor shall agree a third-party beneficiary clause with the sub-processor whereby - in the event the Vendor has factually disappeared, ceased to exist in law, or has become insolvent - the Client shall have the right to terminate the sub-processor contract and to instruct the sub-processor to erase or return the Client Personal Data.

13. Disclosure:

a. If any competent law enforcement agency, government, or regulatory authority requests Vendor disclosure of the Client Personal Data, Vendor will attempt to redirect such law enforcement agency, government, or regulatory authority to request that data directly from the Client and the Vendor is entitled to provide the Client's basic contact information to such law enforcement agency, government, or regulatory authority.

b. Except as prescribed by the lawful order of a court, such as a subpoena, or in response to a lawful access request by a law enforcement agency (subject to the clause 13a above), no Client Personal Data shall be released/disclosed by the Vendor without the Client's written consent.

c. Unless otherwise prohibited by the court or law enforcement agency making the request, the Vendor must inform the Client of the receipt of such a request within two (2) days of receiving such request to allow the Client to seek a protective order or exercise other appropriate remedy available to the Client. The Vendor shall not enter into any communication or take action without the express agreement and authorization of the Client.

14. International Transfers:

a. Any transfer of Client Personal Data to a third country or an international organisation by Vendor shall be done only on the basis of documented instructions/authorization from the Client or in order to fulfil a specific requirement under Applicable Laws including the Data Protection Laws to which the Vendor is subject and shall take place in compliance with the provisions of the applicable Data Protection Laws.

b. Client agrees that where the Vendor engages a sub-processor in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Privacy Agreement for carrying out specific processing activities and those processing activities involve an international/cross-border transfer of Client Personal Data within the meaning of the relevant provisions of the applicable Data Protection Laws, the Vendor and the sub-processor can ensure compliance with such provisions (subject to a prior authorization from the Client as stipulated under clause 14(a) above) by using standard contractual clauses (if available) in terms of such Data Protection Laws, provided the conditions for the use of those standard contractual clauses are met. In all other cases where no standard contractual clauses exist under the applicable Data Protection Laws, Vendor shall ensure that such international/cross-border transfer between the Vendor and its sub-processor shall be governed by the provisions of the relevant module of the Model Clauses that shall be read and apply mutatis mutandis in relation to the country of origin of Client Personal Data in scope.

c. This section becomes applicable in case any transfer of Client Personal Data to the Vendor is a Restricted Transfer of Client Personal Data. Parties agree to abide by the Model Clauses incorporated hereto by reference and form an integral part of this Privacy Agreement. In case any provision of this Privacy Agreement contradicts the Model Clauses, the Model Clauses shall prevail. This Privacy Agreement is not intended to amend the terms of the Model Clauses, and no term of this Privacy Agreement should be read or interpreted as having that effect.
    i. Client Personal Data covered under GDPR where Client is the Controller of whole or part of Client Personal Data and the Vendor is a Processor, Module 2 (transfer controller to processor) of the Model Clauses, completed as follows, shall apply in relation to such data. Capitalized terms in this clause (if not defined in this Privacy Agreement) shall have meaning as defined under the GDPR:
        1. Clause 7 is included, option 1 for clause 9(a), optional part of clause 11(a) is included, option 1 for clause 17.
        2. Time period reference in clause 9(a) shall be thirty (30) days.
        3. The relevant member state for the purpose of clause 17 and 18(b) shall be Spain.
        4. The competent supervisory authority for the purpose of Part C of Annexure I shall be the Spanish Data Protection Agency (AEPD).
        5. Annexures I, II and III to the Model Clauses shall be deemed completed with the information and as per the instructions set out in Annexures I, II and III, respectively, of this Privacy Agreement.

    ii. Client Personal Data covered under GDPR where Client is the Processor of whole or part of Client Personal Data and the Vendor is its sub-processor, Module 3 (transfer processor to processor) of the Model Clauses, completed as follows, shall apply in relation to such data. Capitalized terms in this clause (if not defined in this Privacy Agreement) shall have meaning as defined under the GDPR:
        1. Clause 7 is included, option 1 for clause 9(a), optional part of clause 11(a) is included, option 1 for clause 17.
        2. Time period reference in clause 9(a) shall be thirty (30) days.
        3. The relevant member state for the purpose of clause 17 and 18(b) shall be Spain.
        4. The competent supervisory authority for the purpose of Part C of Annexure I shall be the Spanish Data Protection Agency (AEPD).

5. Annexures I, II and III to the Model Clauses shall be deemed completed with the information and as per the instructions set out in Annexures I, II and III, respectively, of this Privacy Agreement.

iii. Client Personal Data covered under UK GDPR: In relation to Client Personal Data protected by the UK GDPR, the UK Addendum will apply in relation to such data, completed as follows:
   1. The relevant module of Model Clauses, completed as set out above in this section, shall also apply to transfers of such Client Personal Data, subject to sub-clause 2 below.
   2. Tables 1 to 3 of the UK Addendum shall be deemed completed with relevant information from the Model Clauses, completed as set out above, and the options "importer" and "exporter" shall be deemed checked in Table 4. The start date of the UK Addendum (as set out in Table 1) shall be the date of this Privacy Agreement.

d. Parties agree that in case of a transfer of Client Personal Data by the Client to the Vendor to a country outside the country of origin of such Client Personal Data (international/cross-border transfer or as onward transfer), the conditions of this section shall apply:
   i. Client Personal Data covered under Federal Act on Data Protection ('FADP') of Switzerland where Client is the Controller of whole or part of Client Personal Data and the Vendor is a Processor, Module 2 (transfer controller to processor) of the Model Clauses, as detailed in section 14(c)(i) of this Privacy Agreement, completed as follows, shall apply in relation to such data. Capitalized terms in this clause (if not defined in this Privacy Agreement) shall have meaning as defined under the FADP:
      1. Clause 7 is included, option 1 for clause 9(a), optional part of clause 11(a) is included, option 1 for clause 17.
      2. Time period reference in clause 9(a) shall be thirty (30) days.
      3. The term relevant member state for the purpose of clause 17 and 18(b) and (c), shall be interpreted in a manner that allows the Data Subjects to exercise their rights in their place of habitual residence, i.e. Switzerland.
      4. References to competent supervisory authority in accordance with Clause 13 and Part C of Annexure I shall be interpreted as the Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC).
      5. Annexures I, II and III to the Model Clauses shall be deemed completed with the information and as per the instructions set out in Annexures I, II, and III respectively, of this Privacy Agreement.

   ii. Client Personal Data covered under Federal Act on Data Protection ('FADP') of Switzerland where Client is the Processor of whole or part of Client Personal Data and the Vendor is its sub-processor, Module 3 (transfer processor to processor) of the Model Clauses, as detailed in section 14(c)(ii) of this Privacy Agreement completed as follows, shall apply in relation to such data. Capitalized terms in this clause (if not defined in this Privacy Agreement) shall have meaning as defined under the FADP:

1. Clause 7 is included, option 1 for clause 9(a), optional part of clause 11(a) is included, option 1 for clause 17.
2. Time period reference in clause 9(a) shall be thirty (30) days.
3. The term relevant member state for the purpose of clause 17and 18(b) and (c), shall be interpreted in a manner that allows the Data Subjects to exercise their rights in their place of habitual residence, i.e. Switzerland.
4. References to competent supervisory authority in accordance with Clause 13 and Part C of Annexure I shall be interpreted as the Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC).
5. Annexures I, II and III to the Model Clauses shall be deemed completed with the information and as per the instructions set out in Annexures I, II, and III respectively, of this Privacy Agreement.

iii. Client Personal Data other than those covered under GDPR per clause 14(c)(i) and (ii), under UK GDPR per clause 14(c)(iii), and under FADP per clause 14(d)(i) and (ii): Parties agree to abide by the Model Clauses as per clause 14(c)(i), which are incorporated hereto by reference, that shall be read and apply mutatis mutandis in relation to the country of origin of such Client Personal Data. The Client shall be deemed to be the Controller (or any cognate term under the Applicable Laws including Data Protection Laws of the country of origin of the Client Personal Data).

1. Clause 7 is included, option 1 for clause 9(a), optional part of clause 11(a) is included, option 1 for clause 17.
2. Time period reference in clause 9(a) shall be thirty (30) days.
3. The term relevant member state for the purpose of clause 17 and 18(b) and (c), shall be interpreted in a manner that allows the Data Subjects to exercise their rights in their place of habitual residence, i.e. the country of origin of Client Personal Data in scope.
4. References to competent supervisory authority in accordance with Clause 13 and Part C of Annexure I shall be interpreted as the concerned regulator or the supervisory authority of the country of origin of Client Personal Data in scope.
5. Annexures I, II and III to the Model Clauses shall be deemed completed with the information and as per the instructions set out in Annexures I, II, and III respectively, of this Privacy Agreement.

15. Indemnification:

Vendor agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold the Client harmless, to the extend permitted by law, from any liability, claims, damages, fines, penalties, costs, demands and expenses (including costs of defense, settlement, and reasonable legal fees), arising from or related to any breach of this Privacy Agreement by Vendor, or its Affiliates, Employees, or sub-processors. Vendor will not settle any dispute or agree to any settlement without the prior written consent of Client. Client reserves the right to retain its own counsel and to actively participate in settlement and all litigation proceedings as it in its sole judgment determines necessary or desirable. This clause shall survive the termination or expiration of this Privacy Agreement.

16. California (U.S.A.) Specific Terms:

To the extent Vendor processes Client Personal Data originating from and protected by the Data Protection Law of California (U.S.A.) then the terms specified herein shall apply in addition to the terms of this Privacy Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms under this clause and any other term(s) of this Privacy Agreement, the terms of this clause will prevail with respect of the Client Personal Data originated in California (U.S.A.). Capitalized terms in this clause (if not defined in this Privacy Agreement) shall have meaning as defined under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) and the California Privacy Rights Act of 2020 (CPRA).

a. Vendor is a Service Provider to the Client and the Processing of Client Personal Data by the Vendor shall be undertaken only for the Client's purposes in accordance with this clause and this Privacy Agreement. The Client has not received any monetary or other valuable consideration from the Vendor and that the Client is not Selling Client Personal Data to the Vendor as per CPRA.

b. The Vendor is prohibited from:
    i. Combining Client Personal Data with Personal Information it has received from, or on behalf of, another Person(s), or collects from its own interaction with the Consumers.
    ii. Selling or Sharing the Client Personal Data.
    iii. Retaining, using, or disclosing the Client Personal Data for any purpose other than for the Business Purposes specified in this Privacy Agreement and/or other relevant agreements between the parties, including retaining, using, or disclosing the Client Personal Data for a Commercial Purpose other than the Business Purposes specified in this Privacy Agreement and/or other relevant agreements between the parties, or as otherwise permitted by CPRA.
    iv. Retaining, using, or disclosing the Client Personal Data outside of the direct business relationship between the parties.

c. If Vendor engages any other Person to assist it in Processing Client Personal Data for a Business Purpose on behalf of the Client, or if any other Person engaged by the Vendor engages another Person to assist in Processing Client Personal Data for that Business Purpose, it must notify the Client of that engagement, and the engagement must be pursuant to a written contract binding the other Person to observe all the requirements set forth in this clause.

17. Termination for Breach:

Without prejudice to any provisions of the applicable Data Protection Laws, in the event that Vendor is in breach of its obligations under this Privacy Agreement, Client may, without any liability towards Vendor:

a. Instruct Vendor to suspend the processing of Personal Data until the latter complies with this Privacy Agreement; or

b. Terminate the Main Agreement and this Privacy Agreement.

The Vendor shall promptly inform the Client in case it is unable to comply with the instructions of the Client or this Privacy Agreement, for whatever reason.

18. Term and Post Termination:

a. This Privacy Agreement will remain in full force and effect for as long as any processing including but not limited to access and storage of Client Personal Data by Vendor (and its sub-processors) takes place.

b. Following termination of the Main Agreement, Vendor shall (and ensure that its sub-processors shall), at the choice of the Client (and within thirty days of receipt of communication from the Client), delete all Client Personal Data (whether in electronic or physical form) and certify to the Client that it has done so, or return all the Client Personal Data to the Client and delete existing copies unless the applicable Data Protection Laws requires storage of such Client Personal Data (only to the extent and for such period as required by such laws). Until the data is deleted or returned, the Vendor shall continue to ensure compliance with this Privacy Agreement. Vendor shall ensure the confidentiality of all such Client Personal Data and shall ensure that it is only processed as necessary for the purpose(s) specified in the applicable Data Protection Laws requiring its storage and for no other purpose.

c. Vendor shall confirm in writing within ten (10) days of such erasure or return, as applicable, that Vendor and its sub-processors have acted according to the direction(s) of the Client and no longer possess/hold/retain any Client Personal Data or part thereof in any form - electronic or physical, and that such data is no longer retrievable and accessible.

19. Severability:

If any provision of this Privacy Agreement is rendered ineffective or void by order of any court or competent regulatory authority or by virtue of Applicable Laws including Data Protection Laws, f the remaining provisions of the Privacy Agreement shall not be affected. The parties shall promptly and in good faith work to replace the ineffective or void provision with a lawful provision that meets the purpose of ineffective or void provision.
